Professional Experience

Senior Lecturer and Master of Accountancy Advisor

Auburn University at Montgomery

June 2015- present

Senior Lecturer – Instruct graduate and undergraduate courses for the School of Accountancy including; Income Tax Accounting, Taxation of Business Entities, Taxation Serving the Community, Federal Tax Research, and CPA Professional Certification in Accounting

Master of Accountancy Advisor – Serve as advisor to the Master of Accountancy (MAcc) students conducting advising sessions with current students each semester and meeting with prospective students. Advise students on eligibility to sit for the CPA exam, and help with career and internship opportunities for students. Recruit for the MAcc program by attending events at AUM as well as other colleges and conferences.

Beta Alpha Psi Faculty Advisor - Serve as the faculty advisor for Beta Alpha Psi (BAP) which is an international honorary and service organization for accountings students. The organization strives to instill the principles of excellence, achievement, and service in student members by offering opportunities for them to network with accounting professionals, participate in national accounting competitions, and serve the community through many service projects each semester. Prepared and submitted the petition to National Beta Alpha Psi for AUM School of Accountancy to form a Beta Alpha Psi chapter on our campus. We were installed as the Xi Gamma Chapter in 2018. We began as a Mission Chapter, then each year won awards to become a Distinguished Chapter, a Superior Chapter, and obtained Gold Status Chapter for the 2023-2024 academic year.

SaveFirst Initiative – Serve as faculty sponsor for students participating in the SaveFirst initiative providing tax preparation for low-income, working families in the Montgomery area. Instruct and monitor students as they prepare the returns for these taxpayers during the months of January – April each year.

Becker University Advisory Board - Serve as member of board attending annual meeting each summer and participating in virtual meetings during the year. Becker is a CPA review course provider and we work with them to make sure what they are providing is what we are seeing in the classroom that the students need to pass the CPA exam.
