SCHOLARLY AND CREATIVE ACTIVITIES

Creative Initiatives and Projects with UN, UN Women, UCUN, UNITAR

In 2019, I had a major breakthrough in research when one of my policy papers, “Role and Scope of Women Police in Cybercrime and Victimization,” presented in the American Society of Criminology was evaluated by premium justice research organizations – World Society of Victimology, American Society of Criminology, Criminologists Without Borders - as being relevant for bringing global impact. Paper was recommended for presentation at UN platform and inclusion in the United Nations proceeding. Presentation of this paper placed me in contact with the United Nations, UN Women, UN Women, USA and one major global policing organization, International Association of Women Police. A list of the creative in-progress and completed distinctive activities and projects with these global organizations and other agencies is listed below.

2024 Organized Two Panels and Presented in Each of the Panels: During the 68th annual meeting of UN Commission on the Status of Women (UN CSW68) N.Y, I organized two panels & presented in each of the panels. Topics of the panels & my presentations are listed below.

Topic of Panel One: Engaging Young Adults in Reconstruction of New Scientific Social Reality for Future Generations: UNSDG 4: Education; UNSDG 16: Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions and Declaration of Future Generations

Topic of Presentation: Participative Learning and Student Activism in Reforming Criminal Justice Systems: UN SDG 16: Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions

Topic of Panel Two: The Research Journey of Four Women Researchers and Their Research-based Recommendations in the Areas of UN SDG 4 – Quality Education; UN SDG 16 – Peace, Justice and Stronger Institutions and Declaration of Future Generations

Topic of Presentation: Need to Strengthen Women in Justice Delivery Institutions to Make Women “Second to None,” Invaluable Assets of the Family and Society.

Outcome:

2024 Global Future Generational Equity (GFGE): SSRN Policy Research Paper Series: To give students opportunity to publish to air their voices, a journal/Policy Research Paper Series has been made available. Focus of the series is on strengthening UN Sustainable Goals: 4 – Education, 5 – Gender Equality, & 16 – Peace, Justice & Strong Institutions.

2024 Participation in UN Consultations of the Declaration of Future Generation: Participated in the consultation process of Declaration of Future Generations, and submitted a proposal to be included in the Declaration for Future Generations.

December 2022 to December 2023 Board Member of UN Women, USA: I successfully completed my term on the Board of UN Women, USA. This participation has provided exceptionally learning and rewarding experiences. I enjoyed access to UN Calendar, attending meetings, policy discussions and seminar, and reading UN daily official newspaper.

As a newly selected Board member of UN Women, USA during the 67th annual meeting of UN Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW67), participated in the below listed four high level meetings/sessions at UN HQ, NY.

- CSW67 Side Event: UN Headquarters: “Innovations for Gender Equality in and through Education in the Digital Age,” March 16, 2023.
- CSW67 Side Event: UN Headquarters: “Bridging the Gender Gap in the Digital Economy: Leveraging technology and innovation to advance women’s economic empowerment in Asia Pacific and Africa.” March 16, 2023.
- CSW67 Side Event: UN Headquarters: The Power of Resilience “Supporting civil society and women’s rights organizations working to end violence against women and girls in protracted, complex and overlapping crises.” March 14, 2023.
- CSW67 Side Event: Zoom: “Cracking the Code: Innovation for a Gender Equal Future,” UN Women, USA as a part of CSW 67. March 9, 2023.

Outcome:

Started a new initiative: Global Generational Equality Initiative (GGEI): Working to develop a Global Generational Equality Group (GGEG).

2022 Organized a Panel and Presented on the Topic: During 66th annual meeting of UN Commission on the Status of Women, (UNCSW66), I organized a panel discussion on the topic of “Need and Challenges for Bringing Women and Girls to the Central Stage of Justice Institutions in the Digital Society of Post-COVID Era,” UN Sustainable Development Goals - 5: Equality and 16: Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions.

Topic of Presentation: Handling Cyber Violence against Women and Girls by Bringing Women to the Central Stage of Policing

Outcome: Panel report remained on the portal of UN CSW66 for three months to receive feedback & generate awareness about the issues and recommendations of the panel discussion.

2022 Attended the Academic Council of United Nations System (ACUNS) Annual Meeting, “Evidence-Based Solutions for Intensifying Global Challenges” held at UN Geneva and Graduate Institute of International & Development Studies from June 23-25, 2022.

2021 Organized a Panel Discussion: During 65th annual meeting of UN Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW65) NY, 2021: I organized a panel discussion on, “Handling Cyber Violence against Women and Girls by Building Gender-Responsive Criminal Justice System,” UN Sustainable Development Goals - 5: Equality and 16: Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions.

Outcome: Panel report remained on UN Portal for three months to receive feedback and generate awareness about the issues and recommendations of this panel discussion.

2020 Attended CSW Meeting: During the 64th annual meeting of UN Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW64) NY, 2020, I participated in the United Nations Virtual Multi-Stakeholder meeting of global representatives from Academia, Private Sector, Civic Society and Non-governmental.

2019 Presented a Policy Paper: During the 63rd annual meeting of UN Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW) NY, 2019, I presented a policy paper on, “Role and Scope of Women Police in Cyber Crime and Cyber Victimization,” UN Sustainable Development Goals - 5: Equality and 16: Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions.

Outcome: I participated in a “Virtual Town Hall Meeting” of the approved global representatives of Civil Society with the UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres.

Initiatives and Projects with International Association of Women Police (IAWP)

In summer 2021, IAWP invited me to serve on their “Global Virtual Engagement Committee” to review the training needs of women police globally. Based on my experience and research, I proposed four initiatives for gender mainstreaming and strengthening of the women police. Two of the initiatives have been approved and sponsored by the Board of Directors and adopted by IAWP. Brief information of both initiatives and my role in execution of the initiatives are provided below:

- Graduate Fellowship Program (GFP) for women police officers: With intent to enhance the education and research among women police officers, $3000 (USD) has been made available annually for a Graduate Fellowship for women police officers. In summer 2022, I had the honor to participate in the preparation, and execution of the project. I served as Chair of the Panel constituted to review and select the first Graduate Fellow for the GFP of IAWP.
- Research Paper Series of the International Association of Women within the Criminal Justice Research Network (CJRN) and Women and Gender Studies Network (WGSRN) of SSRN has been approved to encourage, promote and share research among women police officers. The Research Series has been rapidly growing like any other online journals.

Collaborative Work with Columbian National Police- Criminal Investigation Directorate and Interpol, State Department and USCIS.

- Collaboration Work with Columbian National Police
May 15, 2023, I completed a review of a Classified Document, “Combating the financing of terrorism in modern conditions,” for the Criminality Journal of Ministry of National Defense Columbian National Police- Criminal Investigation Directorate and Interpol. In 2020, I participated in the review process of “Constructing and validation of an instrument to compare national criminal justice policies for the Criminality Journal of

▪ Collaborative Work with State Department – TIP Office

On May, 2023, I participated in a review process of the working of the “Senior Policy Operating Group (SPOG)” of Trafficking in Persons (TIP), State Department of USA and made recommendations for consideration.

▪ Participation in a Research of USCIS

In 2024, by invitation, I began serving and am participating as a Research Subject Matter for USCIS. This project involves creation and ongoing evaluation of the online application process for immigration, migration and status changes of global workers. The online process will help legal migrants and immigrants and halt illegal immigration.
